

English Entry 2-3

Course overview

This course follows on from the English Entry 2-3 Access course.

You will continue to practice reading, writing, speaking, listening and communicating activities skills so that you can become confident in daily activities whilst also working towards a functional skills qualification. You will learn in a supportive and welcoming environment, with guidance from the tutor. You will work on your own and with other learners on different tasks so as well as developing your English skills you will be practicing life and work skills such as decision-making, prioritising, collaborating and independence. You will be expected to complete homework to reinforce and extend your skills outside of class time.

What will I study?

On this course you can learn how to:

- Read and understand simple sentences
- Understand the main points in a short piece of text
- Communicate information in words, phrases and simple sentences
- Use basic punctuation correctly
- Read and spell correctly words designated for Entry Level
- Identify and extract information from short statements
- Clearly express straightforward information and communicate feelings and opinions
- Make appropriate contributions to simple group discussions

Assessment method

Various assessment methods, including on-line and paper-based assessments, individual, group work and communication activities, and given feedback on your progress. Throughout the course you will also receive feedback from your tutor and learn the skills to self-reflect and evaluate your progress.

Entry requirements

You will need to complete an English access or introduction course prior to enrolling on this course to ensure this course is at a suitable level for your needs.

What should I bring with me?

You will need to take notes so bring along your preferred tools such as pen/paper or electronic device. An A4 ringbinder folder will also be essential.

Key information

This course will take place on site. In some unexpected situations, sessions may take place online via Microsoft Teams and telephone support.

Possible next steps

Following the successful completion of this course, you will be supported to enrol on to the most suitable course for you.

Contact us

Our friendly staff can give you further advice and support.

email: adultcollegeenquiries@lbbd.gov.uk

call: 020 8270 4722