

CPD: Working with Challenging Behaviour in Children

Course overview

Cheeky, naughty or worse? When does the behaviour of a child become a more serious concern? Some roles include having to deal with challenging behaviour in childcare and school settings. This behaviour can be caused by both internal and external factors. In this short course we look at strategies for dealing with challenging behaviour in the moment as well as strategies for managing challenging behaviour longer term.

This workshop is essential for learners on Childcare and Teaching Assistant courses and very helpful for those working in these professions, Learning Assistants, Classroom Assistants or those working with young people in Health and Social Care

What will I study?

You will:

- Discuss factors that may contribute to challenging behaviour
- Explore strategies to manage different types behaviour
- Identify ways to remain calm in different situations
- Discuss the different types of behaviour displayed in classrooms

Assessment method

You will participate in discussions, activities and Q&A sessions and receive verbal feedback from the tutor throughout the session.

Entry requirements

You will be on one of our qualification courses, work in a profession that engages with children or have a serious interest in the subject. You will need a solid understanding of English.

What should I bring with me?

You will need to provide your chosen method of note-taking such as notepad & pen or tablet.

Key information

Possible next steps

During this course, you will be given advice and guidance on other suitable CPD, Wellbeing courses or wider courses. You may also wish to progress on to one of our specialist SEND CPD short courses or our Establishing Professional Boundaries short course..

Contact us

Our friendly staff can give you further advice and support.

email: adultcollegeenquiries@lbbd.gov.uk

call: 020 8270 4722